This is the great voyage of scientific discovery that gave the world the MRI. It will be ignored on the shameful night of December 10th.

The Nobel Prize will make itself irrelevant to the true history of the MRI. It will also lose its credibility as a scientific achievement.